Emily Muszynski
Emily is a junior pursuing a degree in history education and museum studies. After graduating, she plans to adopt a dog named Shadrach and work towards a Library Science graduate degree. Most of her writing experience is in historical research and English courses, though she is excited to learn about other disciplines and courses. She is a peer mentor and tour guide on campus. She loves to dance, read, visit national parks, and eat cheeseburgers.